Painter and drummer, Ghana

Emmanuel K. Agbeli is a folk art painter, master drummer and dancer from Kopeyia, a small village in the Volta Region of Ghana.

As the onsite director of the Dagbe Cultural Institute and Arts Center in Kopeyia, Emmanuel teaches American students the traditions of his culture, specializing in dance and music.

Also a prolific painter, Emmanuel's preferred medium is acrylic on canvas. He also stretches and frames the paintings with frames he has built. These colorful paintings depicting the way of life in Ghana can be purchased directly from the artist.
